

Email Consent Form for Municipal Notice

Overview

The Rural Municipality of North Qu'Appelle No. 187 offers residents and ratepayers the option to receive certain municipal notices and communications by email instead of regular mail.

Future Transition to Customer Portal

The RM of North Qu'Appelle No. 187 is in the process of transitioning to a Customer Portal system. This portal will allow residents to securely access account information, notices, invoices, and receipts online.

By providing your email address and consenting to electronic communication, you may receive future instructions and access details related to the Customer Portal.

Risks of Email Communication

Transmitting information by email carries inherent risks. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Email can be forwarded, stored, and shared in both electronic and paper formats.
- Email messages can be sent to unintended recipients due to misaddressing.
- Email can be intercepted, altered, or accessed without authorization.
- Email may be subject to viruses or other security risks.
- Backup copies of emails may exist even after deletion.
- Email communications may be used as evidence in legal proceedings.

The RM of North Qu'Appelle No. 187 will take reasonable steps to protect the confidentiality of email communications; however, the municipality cannot guarantee security or confidentiality and will not be liable for any unauthorized access or disclosure of information transmitted by email.

Consent Terms

By consenting to receiving municipal notices by email, I acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. Failure to receive an emailed notice does not exempt me from responsibility for payment of any taxes, charges, or penalties.
2. I am responsible for ensuring the RM has my current and correct email address.
3. I will notify the RM promptly of any changes to my email address.
4. I understand that I may withdraw my consent at any time by notifying the RM in writing. Upon withdrawal, notices will revert to regular mail delivery.
